Companions and Shepherds

A Sunday School teacher decided to have her Second Grade class memorize Psalm 23, "The Lord is My Shepherd." Bobby was excited, but he wasn't very good at memorizing. After much practice, his turn came to recite Psalm 23 before the congregation. The teacher was nervous. He stepped up to the microphone and proudly announced, "The Lord is my Shepherd—and... and... —and that's all I need to know!"

In one phrase, Bobby captured the whole meaning: "The Lord is my Shepherd; there is nothing I lack." These words touch so many of us deeply. If we have trouble or fear, darkness and death and sickness, Jesus has our back—Jesus restores my strength, anoints my head with oil. To sum it up, the genuine meaning of Psalm 23 means, "God's companionship transforms every situation."

What does "God's companionship" mean? Rappers have their peeps, sports stars have their crowds... but the companionship of God must be something different. The apostles were busy with "people coming and going" so Jesus calls them to rest in God's companionship when he says, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while."

We all need a time of quiet listening, away from the noise and the crowds, in order to feel God comforting us as a companion and a shepherd. Have you felt God's care lately? Or do you take your work with you, work too late at night, and fall exhausted into bed? If so—you do indeed need the Shepherd to help you set priorities. Taking time to really LIVE your life will make you and everyone you love healthier and happier.

Stewardship Reflection

"...come away by yourselves to a lonely place and rest awhile." Mark 6:31

Do you spend time, everyday, alone and in silence listening to how God is calling you? If not, you are missing out on a wonderful opportunity to develop a more personal relationship with him. Unless we talk and more importantly, listen to God everyday.

Max And Matilda Explain It All To You

The subject today is food—we all love it, ... other creatures do, too. Max the dog and Matilda the cat share ... Max: "We advise dogs and cats, never eat food from your own bowl, if you can steal some from the table. Especially if it's steak...." Matilda: "If our dish is empty, we like to let you know when you can't ignore us—such as when you're in bed or the bathroom... Finally, we are so grateful for your abundant provision. So if we catch something on our own, we like to bring it inside and leave it as a "love gift" for you. Because sharing our food with you is the highest form of charity—the gospel is written on our hearts, too, you know!"

Today's Psalm 145 says: "The LORD is good to all, compassionate to every creature.... You satisfy the desire of every living thing." Feeding hungry animals and humans is a major Work of Mercy. But a deeper meaning is that God is in such a profound relationship with every creature that God actually "satisfies the desire of every living thing." But—do we know what we desire? Humans are told to desire wealth, success, lots of new things every year. But cravings aren't the deepest desires of our heart—they only make us captive to the demands of the world. Our deepest desire is to be one with Christ, to bring God's love to the whole world. So, see your cravings for what they are. Be thirsty, instead, to build God's kingdom of peace, health and wellness for all creatures.
