STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's." (Matthew 22:21)
Everything we are and everything we have belongs to God. We aren't 'owners' of anything, we are merely 'stewards' of the gifts God has given each of us. All God is asking is that we give back a portion of what He gave us.. This is the essence of Stewardship. God should be our first priority in everything. All else comes second especially our money.

GIVE TO CAESAR WHAT IS CAESAR'S AND TO GOD WHAT IS GOD'S.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,
This Sunday's Gospel presents to us a new face-to-face encounter between Jesus and his adversaries. The theme addressed is that of the tribute to Caesar: a "thorny" issue about whether or not it was lawful to pay taxes to the Roman Emperor, to whom Palestine was subject in Jesus' time. There were various positions. Thus, the question that the Pharisees posed to him "Is it permissible to pay taxes to Caesar or not?" was meant to ensnare the Teacher. In fact, depending on how he responded, he could have been accused of being either for or against Rome.

But in this case too, Jesus responds calmly and takes advantage of the malicious question in order to teach an important lesson, rising above the polemics and the alliance of his adversaries. He tells the Pharisees: "Let me see the money you pay the tax with". They present him with a coin, and, observing the coin, Jesus asks: "Whose head is this? Whose name?" The Pharisees can only answer: "Caesar's". Then Jesus concludes: "Very Well, give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar – and to God what belongs to God". On the one hand, suggesting they return to the emperor what belongs to him, Jesus declares that paying tax is not an act of idolatry, but a legal obligation to the earthly authority; on the other hand—and it is here that Jesus presents the "thrust" of his response: recalling the primacy of God, he asks them to render to Him that which is His due as the Lord of the life and history of mankind.

The reference to Caesar's image engraved on the coin says that it is right that they deal fully with the rights and duties of the citizens of the State; but symbolically he makes them think about the other image that is imprinted on every man and woman: the image of God. He is the Lord of all, and we, who were created "in his image" belong to Him first and foremost. From the question posed to him by the Pharisees, Jesus draws a more radical and vital question for each of us, a question we can ask ourselves: to whom do I belong? To family, to the city, to friends, to work, to politics, to the State. Yes, of course. But first and foremost — Jesus reminds us — you belong to God. This is the fundamental belonging. It is He who has given you all that you are and have. And therefore, day by day, we can and must live our life in recognition of this fundamental belonging and in heartfelt gratitude toward our Father, who creates each one of us individually, unrepeatable, but always according to the image of his beloved Son, Jesus. It is a wondrous mystery.

Christians are called to commit themselves concretely in the human and social spheres without comparing "God" and "Caesar"; comparing God and Caesar would be a fundamentalist approach. Christians are called to commit themselves concretely in earthly realities but illuminating them with the light that comes from God. The primary entrustment to God and hope in him does not imply an escape from reality, but rather the diligent rendering to God that which belongs to him. This is why a believer looks to the future reality, that of God, so as to live earthly life to the fullest, and to meet its challenges with courage.

May the Virgin Mary help us to always live in conformity with the image of God that we bear within us, inside, also offering our contribution to the building of the earthly city.

Kid's Korner

The Pharisees tried to trap Jesus in what he said. So they said to him, "Teacher, we know that you are sincere and teach God's way and show no favourites. Tell us then, is it lawful to pay taxes to the emperor?" Jesus, knowing their plan said, "Why are you putting me to the test? Show me the coin used to pay tax. They brought him a denarius. The He said, "Whose head and title is this?" They answered, "Caesar's." So, he told them, "Give then to Caesar what is Caesar's and to God what is God's." (Matt. 22: 15-21)

The Pharisees asked Jesus if they should pay taxes to Caesar, the Roman Emperor.
