Easter Sunday,
Year B, 31st March 2024

Christ, our hope, is risen!
Alleluia!

We greet this day with thanksgiving and praise. Christ our hope is risen and we want to announce it by our life and our joy.

This is how we see Peter in the First Reading. He is addressing Cornelius and his household, recounting Jesus's life and death, and how, as a witness to it, Peter has been ordered to proclaim Christ's resurrection to his people.

St Paul, in his letter to the Corinthians (Second Reading), encourages us with the practical example of getting rid of the old yeast, to be completely renewed through Christ, in sincerity and truth.

The Psalm is a joyful Easter song celebrating Christ's triumph. It will be a refrain for us throughout the season.

In the Gospel, after Mary of Magdala finds the stone rolled away from the tomb, she runs to tell Peter and John. By seeing the empty tomb and the discarded cloths, they slowly come to realise that Jesus has truly risen.

Let us pray that we, too, will witness to the resurrection in our lives.

Pastor's Message

The Lord is risen! Indeed He is truly risen!

I prayed for all of you who journeyed with me through the season of Lent and the Holy Week. I hope that this new season of Easter will continually bring us the blessings from our Risen Lord.

I invite everyone to congratulate and pray for Alyssa, Christina and Jason who received the sacraments of initiation at the Easter Vigil. It was a reason for joy because our parish community has more members. Pray also for those who are preparing to receive the sacrament of confirmation in the coming months.

I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to our parish ministries for their sincere dedication and hard work which tells us a lot about their love for the Lord and our parish community.

I am very grateful to the countless and nameless volunteers, who helped us make our Holy Week celebration meaningful and spiritually uplifting. Special mention to our music ministry, ushers, altar servers, lectors, eucharistic ministers, counters and to everyone who made a generous donation for Easter flowers.

I want all the parishioners and volunteers to know that you have a very important place in my heart.

Have a blessed season of Easter!!

Father Rey
